NIGHT AT THE MUSEUMS

African Burial Ground National Monument
290 Broadway (bet. Duane & Reade St.)
np.gov/afbg
The oldest and largest known excavated burial ground in North America for both free and enslaved Africans. It began to use in the 17th century but was only rediscovered in 1991. The story is both of the Africans whose holy place this was, but also the story of the modern-day New Yorkers who fought to honor these ancestors. Programming: Tour the visitor center, view the film Our Time At Last, which details the history of the African Burial Ground from its creation, through its recovery, and onto its designation as a national park.

China Institute
40 Rector Street (bet. West & Washington St.)
china institute.org
Founded in 1926, China Institute is a non-partisan organization that is the go-to resource on China. Its diverse programs, school, and gallery exhibitions bring to life the depth, complexity, and dynamism of China. Visitors can enjoy tours of our latest Gallery exhibit “Art of the Mountain: Through the Chinese Organization that is the go-to resource on China. Its chinainstitute.org

Federal Hall National Memorial
26 Wall Street (bet. Wall & Broad/Nassau St.)
nps.gov/feha
Federal Hall National Memorial features exhibits that present the history of Federal Hall, a museum and memorial to America's first President and the historic site and museum. Programming includes live family history research/genealogy by examining immigrant arrivals (including Ellis Island), federal census and naturalization (citizenship) records, plus so much more.

Fraunces Tavern® Museum
54 Pearl Street (corner of Broad St.)
franccestavernmuseum.org
The only museum located in Manhattan that focuses on the Colonial period, Revolutionary War and the Early Republic. Stand in the room where Gen. George Washington bid farewell to his officers, explore special exhibitions such as Fear & Force: New York City’s Sons of Liberty and Confidential: The American Revolution’s Agents of Espionage, and learn how important New York City was during the birth of the nation at this historic site and museum. Programming includes live 18th-century music and dance lessons provided by the Tricorne Dance Ensemble; guided tours of the museum; and a Colonial Costume Photo Booth.

National Archives at New York City
One Bowling Green (bet. Whitehall & State St.)
archives.gov/nyc
Connects visitors to our nation’s history. Our theme is Revolutionaries and Rights and the historic strides taken throughout history. Engage with costumed historical interpreters throughout the building. Stop into our Learning Center to discover many of the national treasures of New York, go on an “Archival Adventure,” and pull archival facsimile documents off the shelves. In the Welcome Center, view original documents and the new exhibit “New York on the Record: Rightfully Hers” about women and the right to vote. In the Research Center, begin a journey into family history research/genealogy by examining immigrant arrivals (including Ellis Island), federal census and naturalization (citizenship) records, plus so much more.

National Museum of the American Indian,
Smithsonian Institution
One Bowling Green (bet. Broadway & State St.)
american indian.si.edu
Illuminates through exhibitions and programs the diversity of Native peoples of the Americas, from the Arctic Circle to the southern tip of Patagonia. Experience the newly opened imaginATIONS Activity Center, a family-friendly, interactive learning environment where the focus is Native innovations throughout history that shape the modern world. Also, view the “Infinity of Nations,” “Taíno,” and “T.C. Cannon” exhibitions, as well as the exquisite Alexander Hamilton U.S. Custom House.

National September 11 Memorial Museum
180 Greenwich Street
911memorial.org
The country’s principal institution concerned with exploring the implications of the events of 9/11, documenting the impact of those events, and exploring 9/11’s continuing significance. Free admission is from 5–8 p.m. on Tuesdays, with the last admission two hours prior to closing. Tickets are not available in advance and will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis at the museum starting at 4 p.m. Distribution time is subject to change.

9/11 Tribute Museum
92 Greenwich St. (at the corner of Rector St.)
911tribute museum.org
A project of the September 11th Families’ Association and offers visitors a place where they can connect with people from the 9/11 community: survivors, family members who lost loved ones, first responders, recovery workers, and people who live and work in Lower Manhattan. Visitors will learn about the historic events of that day, along with the personal experiences of those who lived it, the unprecedented rescue and recovery operations, and the tremendous spirit of support and generosity that arose after the attacks.

Poets House
10 River Terrace (corner of Murray Street)
poetshouse.org
A national poetry library and poetry museum, it offers something for everyone in the wide and varied tradition of verse. Visitors can peruse our 70,000-volume poetry library and view exhibitions that focus on the physical and visual expression of poetry. View archival materials from Poets House’s history, including handwritten correspondence from legendary poets and writers. We will be offering free book giveaways and various family-friendly activities emphasizing the similarities between libraries, museums, and poetry, of course.

The Skyscraper Museum
39 Battery Place (at 1st Place)
skyscraper.org
Located in the world’s first, and foremost vertical metropolis, celebrates New York City’s rich architectural heritage and examines the historical forces and individuals that have shaped its successive skylines. Visit the museum and join the Curator’s Tour, with founding director Carol Willis, of the special exhibition “Housing Density” at 5 p.m.

South Street Seaport Museum
southstreetseaportmuseum.org
Dedicated to the rise of New York as a port city and its critical role in the development of the United States. The Museum’s landmarked buildings, unique collections and historic ships provide interactive exhibits, education, and unique visitor experiences. Visit the exhibit, “Millions: Migrants and Millionaires Aboard the Great Liners, 1900-1914,” at 12 Fulton Street. On Pier 16, come aboard the 19th-century tall ship Wavertree and the floating lightship Ambrose. On Water Street discover the breadth and brilliance of 19th-century letterpress printing with demonstrations and make sure to visit the store.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION:
#NIGHTATTHEMUSEUMS   #R2R19
@LMCC      @LMCC_NYC
RESTAURANT DISCOUNTS

Dining discounts of 20% are available at select restaurants during Night at the Museums and every Tuesday until August 27, as part of the Downtown Alliance’s “Get Low” dining program. Check out the Downtown Alliance’s Instagram @downtownnyc to see which restaurants are participating tonight and each week.

20% Off // Dinner For Two // Every Tuesday // Somewhere New
#getlow2019 #downiswhatsup

SOCIAL MEDIA

Facebook: Fb.com/LMCCNYC
#NightAtTheMuseums
#R2R19
#downiswhatsup
Twitter: @LMCC
Instagram: @LMCC_NYC